GREAT ARCANUM RALLY HERE TO-MORROW NIGHT

morrow night will be the public rally of the Royal Arcanum.

Great interest is being manifested by the members and it is one of the absorbing topics of the day among them. As a free attraction it is the best ever offered in this city and will reflect much credit upon the order.

The programme consists of fine musical numbers with four short speeches and recitations by Miss Kate Elsmere Puller, the popular elecutionist.

The speakers will be Soi. L. Bloomberg, supreme representative of the order in this city and chairman of the joint rally committee, who will deliver the address of welcome: Grand Regent F. T. McFaden, the distinguished pastor of the First Presbyterian Church: Anthony S. Robinson, of St. Louis, Mo., the ranking officer of the order; and Hon. W. Holt Apgar, of Trenton, N. J., past supreme regent. Mr. Apgar, who is a very humorous speaker, is a master Mason and a member of the New Jaraey Legislature. Four years ago he addressed an audi-ence on a similar occasion that packed the Academy to its capacity.

The music, both instrumental and vocal, is very catchy, and several of the pieces have been composed for the occasion. The Grove Avenue Quartette, which consists of Miss Doza Mitchell, soprano; Mirs, Jasper L. Rowe, contraito; J. William Tribbett, tenor; Oscar Lohman, basso, and Manly B. Ramos, director, is one of the best quarrettes in the State.

On the stage will be seated the supreme and grand officers residing in this city, the Rally Committee and the officers of each council. The boxes will be occupied by the Governor, Mayor Taylor and a number of prominent sentlemen who have accepted invisations to be present. The rally is open to the public, but the admission will be by tlockets, which may be secured from the officers of the various councils. Pneumonia is a germ disease, due to a specific germ. It is not of particular interest to know that this germ is called the Diplococous; it is important to know, however that the pneumonia germ cannowever, that the pneumonia germ can-not grow in a system that is properly fortified.

Pheumonia frequently follows long exposure—and when the doctors use the word exposure, they mean any condition that tends to exhaust vitality and waste tissue; it may be a rold, a drenching in a pouring rain, or a weakened state of the organs of the body—excess in any form.

form.

The doctor knows that his first duty is to have the patient take nourishment that will increase the hodily warmth. The elements that Nature draws upon day by day to keep up this bodily warmth are the exact properties contained in the formula of Father John's Medicine.

ed in the formula of Father John's Medicine.

That is why no other medicine ever prescribed is more effective in curing colds, grip and pneumonia.

Pneumonia often follows colds and grip because the hody has been weakened by the poisonous and nerve-deadening drugs contained in 99 per cent, of the patent medicines and so-called "cough balsams" and "syrups."

What you mistake for temporary relief from these dangerous preparations is deadening of the nerves at the expense of weakening the body; the discase and impurities remain.

If, after a cold or attack of the grip, you feel tired and exhausted it is hecause the process by which the impurities are driven out has been interrupted and held in check by these drugs.
